TORTS – Common Law Defamation Flow Chart

PRIMA FACIE ELEMENTS:

① Is there a defamatory statement?
(this means tending to injure reputation, i.e., deter others from dealing with the person, from viewpoint of any substantial and morally respectable group; per se categorization is sufficient, but not necessary)

② Is the statement regarding a matter of fact?
(statements of opinion don't qualify)

③ Is the statement of and concerning the plaintiff?
(identification of person can be implicit; can be by group identification if group is small)

④ Was the statement published by the defendant?
(published means intentionally or negligently actually communicated to at least one third person)

⑤ Is there an "extra condition"?
(statement is libel per se, libel per quod, slander per se, or special damages are proven)

No liability

Is it libel or slander?

SLANDER PER SE / LIBEL PER QUOD ANALYSIS
Does the statement's defamatory information come from ... ?
- adverse to one's profession or business
- loathsome disease
- guilt of crime involving moral turpitude
- lack of chastity

If YES → then no special damages need be proven.
If NO → then special damages must be proven.

If slander ...
use slander per se analysis.

If libel ...
Is it libel per se?
(no external information is needed to understand defamatory import)
If so, go to defenses.

Defamatory Statement

Defamatory meaning

- "A communication is defamatory if it tends so to harm the reputation of another as to lower him in the estimation of the community or to deter third persons from associating or dealing with him."
Nuyen v. Slater (Mich. 1964)

Per se categories

- adverse to one's profession or business
- loathsome disease
- guilt of crime involving moral turpitude
- lack of chastity

Some examples of crimes that have been considered to be "of moral turpitude"

- murder
- voluntary manslaughter
- theft offenses
- forgery
- kidnapping
- mayhem
- rape
- fraud
- spousal abuse
- child abuse
- driving under the influence

Lack of Chastity

- By statute, includes male and female plaintiffs in Michigan

Beyond per-se categories

Held defamatory to represent
- Mental illness
- Substance abuse
- Criminal acts
- Sexual impropriety, extra-marital affairs
- Bankruptcy, financial irresponsibility
- Dishonesty

Beyond per-se categories

Courts "take the world as it is" when deciding what is defamatory, even if it might be considered wrong thinking

Status as a victim of rape
- Defamatory according to some courts

Gay, lesbian, or bisexual orientation
- Defamatory in most courts as of a few years ago, but the strong trend is toward finding this not reputation harming.

Beyond per-se categories

Being a Communist
- Generally not considered defamatory during World War II
- Generally considered defamatory during Cold War

Accident or implication

- Defamatory statements can be made by implication. An explicit statement is not necessary.
- Defamation can happen accidentally by juxtaposition – especially of words and images – creating perceived meaning unintended by the author.

Clark v. ABC

- "The Broadcast was reasonably capable of two meanings, one defamatory and the other non-defamatory. Consequently, it was for the jury to decide whether the Broadcast was understood as being defamatory."
